

Legacy Builders International Schools of Global Leadership for Youth

Empowering Youth_ Leading Communities_ Transforming Nations

Scriptural Foundation

“Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.” – Matthew 5:16

Executive Summary

Legacy Builders International Schools of Global Leadership is not only a name—it is a prophetic declaration. As Joseph rose in Egypt, Daniel stood in Babylon, and Esther delivered her people from within a foreign system, so will these youth rise—rooted in righteousness, anointed to lead with justice, wisdom, and love, and equipped for the nations.

Mission

To equip youth, ages 11–16+, to become independent, ethically-grounded, and globally conscious leaders through personalized learning, experiential programs, and values-based community development.

Vision

Legacy Builders International redefines youth education by fusing the interdisciplinary model of Montessori learning, the transformative internship model of Cristo Rey, and the Kingdom-centered global equipping principles of the Global Leadership Institute. We prepare future leaders to navigate cross-cultural systems with moral clarity, intellectual curiosity, and divine purpose.

Global Focus

Legacy Builders International Schools of Global Leadership for Youth is designed for international model replication and culturally adaptive implementation. It serves diverse populations, particularly youth from underserved communities, through an accessible and contextualized leadership formation model.
