Apostolic Mission

Dr. Eulalee Wong is a transformational leader called to shape global systems through the synergy of kingdom insight, marketplace excellence, and cultural wisdom. As an international apostolic bishop and former Fortune 500 executive, Dr. Wong has spent over two decades building innovative frameworks that empower faith, business, and community leaders to rise with clarity and credibility.

She currently serves as the Founder and Chief Innovation Officer of Faith Walk International Global (FWIG), where she leads through revelatory strategy and prophetic architecture. She is also the Dean of The Global Leadership Institute (GLI) and Vice President & Global Director of Strategy for Ministers Connect International (MCI)—a growing global alliance of pastors, thought leaders, and institution-builders.

Dr. Wong's calling is rooted in service. Her leadership journey spans international boards, government consultations, and academic design. Her commitment is to develop leaders who will not only serve well in their local communities, but steward influence across global systems with spiritual authority and cultural intelligence.

At the heart of her work is the unwavering belief that the role of today's leader is not to dominate, but to design—to engineer the environments where generational impact can flourish. Her mentorship model empowers leaders to live out Proverbs 4:7: "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding."

Published Scholar & Educator

Dr. Wong is the author of Global Leadership: Navigating Cross-Cultural Systems, a profound theological and sociological work that explores how religious systems shape political, educational, and economic realities around the world. Her accompanying 20-week leadership course draws from Scripture, psychology, and organizational theory to help leaders move with grace, boldness, and clarity in religiously infused cultures.

"In this generation, we must move past cultural sensitivity into cultural stewardship." — Dr. E. Wong

She serves as a lead faculty instructor at GLI, delivering certificate-based training that merges real-world strategy with timeless biblical principles.

Founder of Legacy Builders International

Her passion for youth leadership is personal and prophetic. As the visionary behind Legacy Builders International – Schools of Global Leadership for Youth, Dr. Wong has created a cutting-edge learning environment for adolescents ages 11–17, rooted in faith identity, academic resilience, job readiness, and entrepreneurial innovation.

This school emerged from the 15+ year success of a pioneering youth initiative that has transformed students into systems influencers across sectors. Her vision is that every young leader becomes fluent in both Scripture and strategy—able to lead with integrity, solve with innovation, and serve with compassion.

Marketplace & Ministry Synergy

Dr. Wong brings a rare combination of corporate precision and kingdom discernment. Before transitioning fully into ministry, she served as Chief Regulatory Operations Compliance Officer for Capital One Financial Services, where she led domestic and international oversight teams. Her frameworks continue to influence audit standards and operational excellence practices today.

And yet—her greatest honor is not found in title or territory. It is relational: Daughter. Mother. Grandmother. Sibling. Cousin. Niece. Mentor. Friend. Legacy Builder.

Let's Work Together

Dr. Wong is available for strategic consulting, keynote leadership presentations, ministry equipping, and international partnerships.
